03. Taxation and Payment of Benefits

Taxation and Payment of Benefits

All pension income drawdowns are subject to UK Income Tax and will be taxed under PAYE.

If we have already been notified of your tax code by HMRC for the current tax year, we will apply this tax code to this income request also.

If this is your first income drawdown, and in the current tax year you received a P45 from an employer, please forward Parts 2 and 3 to us and, where permitted, we will use it to apply the correct tax code for your pension.

Otherwise, all gross pension withdrawals will be taxed using the emergency tax code until revised notification has been received from HMRC. We will advise our tax office of the income drawdown, which will in turn contact your tax office to confirm your correct tax code. We will only change your tax code if instructed to do so by HMRC. If residing outside the UK we would recommend seeking tax advice and you should also contact your HMRC tax office to notify them of your country of residence. You should also notify your tax office in your country of residence of all benefits taken.

Once we have processed this request and are in receipt of disinvested funds we shall process your income payments. iPensions Group will normally process payments on the 21st of each month (or nearest working day) and will operate PAYE to deduct any tax due. The net amount will then be paid to your designated bank account as soon as possible, usually 3-5 working days thereafter.

Tax details on this form apply to UK income tax for the tax year 2020/21 and are subject to change.

Full details of withdrawal fees can be seen on The Platform SIPP Schedule of Fees. Withdrawal fees will be deducted from benefits prior to payment. There may be additional charges for currency exchange and bank transfers charges. Please contact iPensions Group for further information.

04. Disinvestments

On receipt of your Flexi-Access Income Form, iPensions Group will arrange for the necessary cash withdrawal from your chosen investment provider. If you and your Financial Adviser (where appointed) have not done so already, you should arrange separately for sufficient cash to be made available with your chosen investment provider by submitting a dealing instruction to our dealing team by email.

Their email address is dealing@ipensionsgroup.com

05. Bank Details

I request that the benefits are paid to the Bank Account I have previously advised you of Yes No

If No, I request that benefits are to be paid to the following bank account, held in my own name.

For bank account verification purposes, where we have not previously received a bank statement, an original or certified copy of your bank statement, on bank headed paper, must be attached. This statement must be on the bank's headed paper and match the bank account details provided above and clearly show your full name, address and be dated within the last six months. A download from the internet is acceptable provided it is in a non-editable format, on bank headed paper, and certified by a suitable certifier.

06. Benefit Declaration

I hereby request that the benefits indicated in this form are paid to me.

I declare that I have read and understood the terms and conditions for payment and review of benefits as set out in The Platform SIPP Key Features document, as updated from time to time, and agree to the terms and conditions for payment of pension benefits.

I agree to provide iPensions Group details of my UK tax status and I understand that all gross pension withdrawals will be taxed under PAYE using the emergency tax code until notified otherwise by HMRC, or your P45 if relevant.

I understand that it is my sole responsibility to declare any benefits I may receive from the Scheme, in the country where I am tax resident. I hereby give iPensions Group a full and unconditional indemnity for any tax liability, interest or charges which may occur as a result of any false or incorrect declaration I have made that ultimately results in such a liability being imposed by any tax authority in any country.

06. Benefit Declaration (Continued)

I understand the risk associated with taking benefits, as set out in The Platform SIPP Key Features Document. Where advice has been given, my adviser has provided me with sufficient information for me to understand the effect this benefit request will have on my SIPP.
